

A new start to a healthy life!

- Look at healthy eating and other health improvements as health “evolutions.”
- When you are ready, make health changes one at a time.
- Start slowly with one positive step, such as eating breakfast at least 2 days a week.
- Once this becomes a habit, take another healthy step.
- Changes that become healthy habits are likely to last.

