

Keep a Survival Kit in Your Car

No car should be without a survival kit of items that you might need in the event you're in an accident, run out of gas, have a breakdown, or get stuck. Items to include:

- First-aid kit.
- Flares.
- White cloth, for distress signal.
- Flashlight with spare batteries.
- Snow shovel.
- Knife or other basic tools.
- Empty gas can, for purchasing gas.
- Small fire extinguisher.
- Paper and pencil.
- Blanket.
- Change, for phone calls and tolls.
- Food and water, for long trips through unpopulated areas.
- Whistle.
