

Low or no-cost family outings

DEPENDING ON YOUR BUDGET AND THE SIZE OF YOUR FAMILY, FUN OUTINGS CAN BE COST-PROHIBITIVE. TRY THESE LOW OR NO-COST OPTIONS FOR FAMILY FUN.

FARMERS MARKET

In addition to strolling among the stalls, many farmer's markets offer live music and free kid-friendly activities.

BIRD WATCHING

Invest in a pair of binoculars and a bird guide book, and you have all you need to start a new family hobby. You can even make bird bingo cards for a fun family competition.

ZOO FREE DAYS

A few times a year, most zoos offer free admission days. You can also check at your local library to see if they have free zoo tickets.

MOVIE IN THE PARK

Many towns schedule free family outdoor movie nights at local parks. Pack blankets, pillows, and popcorn for a night under the stars.

GEOCACHING

All you need is a GPS device and a geocaching app to get started. Plus, everyone will learn valuable skills while searching for your next cache.

COOKOUT AT THE PARK

Check if your local park has firepits or grills you can reserve for a cookout. Invite family and friends to join for added fun.
