

The family that plays together stays together

Playing games is an easy and fun way to experience quality interactions and build family connections. The more time you spend together, the stronger your bond will be.

But, finding a game that everyone will enjoy can be a challenge. Here are eight games that are fun and accessible to a wide range of ages.

CHARADES

This classic game is super easy and sure to have everyone laughing. Even better, no one is too young or too old to play.

PICTIONARY

If you can hold a pencil, you can play pictionary. Whether your family and friends can decipher your drawing is another matter, but all part of the fun.

MINUTE TO WIN IT STYLE GAMES

The idea is to create a challenge and compete for one minute. For example, who can stack the most cups or keep the most balloons in the air? The options are endless.

NINJA COURSE

Using your home or yard as an obstacle course creates many opportunities for play. Set up a ninja course appropriate for your group and compete in teams or race your personal best.

DOMINOS

You can play the traditional game or just imagine the amazing fun you could create working together with the whole family.

DICE GAMES

Rolling dice is fairly simple for any age. Simple addition or pattern matching is possible for even young kids. Look for games such as Quix™, Farkle™, and Yahtzee™.

JENGA™

This game will test everyone's dexterity. The simple rules mean young and old can get in the mix.

CARD GAMES

A standard deck of cards contains a wealth of all-ages gameplay. Try easy games like snap, pig, or crazy eights.
