

You don't have to climb Mt. Everest to be fit.

Start slowly. Build gradually.

Make a short-term goal that is specific and realistic.

Outline steps to meet your goal.

Use a calendar or app to identify specific physical activities you will do.

Note minutes of physical activity you did or steps you took.

Treat yourself to a non-food reward when you reach each short-term goal.

