

Take Control of Your Drinking

There are many resources available to help cut back or stop drinking completely.

Women and everyone age 65+ should limit alcohol to 1 drink per day and 2 drinks per day for men younger than 65.

If you are concerned about your drinking, talk to your provider about getting help.